

New GM's Making Their Debut

The Brooklyn Dodgers have replaced General Manager Rock Brandt with some new blood. Dodger ownership announced today that Rich Callaghan has been appointed as the new General Manager. "Rich comes to us with a wealth of knowledge having been commanding a team in rival league X Factor Baseball League (XFBL), and we expect a lot of him as he dresses in Dodger blue.

The Cleveland ballclub, which has gone through the ringer this season, fired their General Manager and have brought in long time Adult Baseball League (ABL) star Brandon Tucker as the new General Manager. Tucker was quoted "I know I have a tough job, but I enjoy a good rebuild, even if it takes 5 years". The fans in Cleveland are excited to see the new regime at work.

Number One Prospect

Frozen Ropes Baseball's number 1 prospect is Jose Canseco. Canseco who was the 5th Overall pick in the 1948 Amateur Draft is proving to be a star in the making. The 19 year old, part of the San Diego farm system has had stints at AA San Antonio Missions and AAA El Paso Sun Kings. Though limited in playing time the star Left Fielder has slashed a combined .277/.346/.421 with an OPS of .827. Padres regular Left Fielder Mike Hudson has been looking over his shoulder watching Canseco's progression and knows it is just a matter of time before the youngster is given his shot with the main club. Hudson was quoted "He is big, strong, and has a mean look in a nice sort of way, and I know FRBA pitchers are dreading his appearance in the league.

STAT OF THE MONTH:

Brad Silvio, Houston's elite slugger is putting up some big numbers. Silvio is about to surpass his season highs in homeruns at 46, and its not even September. The two time HR Champion (1942-43) is on a current pace to end up with 57 dingers and 140 runs batted in. The Colt 45s third baseman has been fun to watch this season.
